Visegrad Fund

SUMMER INTENSIVE LABORATORY - EMBODIED IDEAS is part of "Embodied ideas. Performing arts program of first avant-garde reinterpretation" which aim is to develop cultural heritage of the first European avant-garde in the community of performative arts.

Laboratory is dedicated to young artists art students, age 18-31, from Poland, Czech Republic, Slovakia and Hungary interested in dance, theater and performing arts.

Leaders: Jana Ryšlavá (CZ), Kat Rampáčková (SK), Viktória Makra (HU), Dawid Żakowski (PL)

DESCRIPTION:

The laboratory will take place between 27.08.-4.09.2022 in Sochaczew (Culture Center in Sochaczew, address: 15 Sierpnia 83, 96- 500 Sochaczew, Poland, 60 km from Warsaw)

During everyday activities and laboratory participants will practice different dance, movement and performative techniques. From the beginning they will take part in physical activities in public and natural spaces (ex. translation in movement, dialog with nature, dialog with the public, improvisations etc.). On the basis of personal experience and inspirations related to different outdoor spaces participants will develop solo and group actions, which will be incorporated into a final performance during the Unity International Festival in Sochaczew.

Individual improvisations created by the participants will be developed throughout the labs to create a theatrical structure. At the end of the laboratory participants will present the work - performance, which will be part of the program of the Unity International Festival in Sochaczew.

Leading subject of Summer Intensive Laboratory EMBODIED IDEAS will be the heritage of European avant-garde. The main point of reference for laboratory will be concepts avant-garde artists from the countries of the leaders and participants. The team of experts and artists will reflect on the heritage of avant-garde artists and transfer of their concept to the performative, choreographic and social ground. We will analyze the artist's work in relation to avant-garde and social movements that took place in Central Europe, in particular in the Visegrad countries after World War I, in the interwar years. Following artists' heritage will be inspiration for lab work: Polish sculpturer Katarzyna Kobro, Czech painter and drafter Toyen, Slovak painter and drafter Viera Kraicova and Slovak neo avant-garde artist Jana Žebliňská, Hungarian poet, novelist, painter and theoretician Lajos Kassák
